"K" In connection with the budget grant for the Mysore University for the current year, the Vice Chancellor recommended that the allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem granted to Dr. Shama Sastri for Archaeological work might be raised to Rs. 200. The matter was con-

"J" sidered in Council on the 16th August 1923 when it was resolved - that the allowance to the Director of Archaeology may be raised - from Rs. 100 to Rs. 200 from the date of order, the extra cost being sanctioned as an additional grant.

"L" The Financial Secretary, however, suggested that it was not desirable to sanction any additional grant. I therefore directed that the matter might be brought up for consideration in December 1923.

"M" Meantime, the Vice Chancellor has now resubmitted the case of Dr. Shama Sastri and very strongly recommended that in view of the fact that the learned Doctor is in no way inferior to the Professors of the University in point of ability or work done, he may be promoted to the grade ₹400 rising to Rs. 700 and started on Rs. 550.

"N" The matter was again considered in Council at the meeting held on the 6th March 1924 when it was resolved that "so long as Dr. Shama Sastri holds the two appointments he may be given a consolidated pay of Rs. 500 which will be personal to him."

The recommendation of the Council may be graciously sanctioned.

To

Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
B a n g a l o r e.

Sir,

Adverting to the last para of your letter No. E.3108/Edn. dated the 29th December 1923 stating that the recommendation made in this office letter No.3643, dated the 4th October 1923, for an increase of salary to Dr. Shama-Sastri, Director of Archaeological Researches has to be deferred for the present, I am directed by the Vice-Chancellor to submit again, for the kind consideration of Government, that the Vice-Chancellor thinks that this is a case of positive hardship. That Dr. Shama Sastri should be asked to do the work of two departments and not be given the pay of even one is most disheartening to the officer not to say that the offices themselves are lowered in prestige. What is more serious still, the work itself suffers most in as much as his present salary is too small to admit of his maintaining the necessary camp staff to make his tours even to the most important of the sites.

His predecessor as Curator was drawing drawing Rs.450/- and his predecessor as Director was drawing Rs.900/-. And in lieu of Rs.1,350/- for both offices, he is paid only Rs.300/-, plus Rs.100/- while his work has been most satisfactory, his reputation for Sanskrit scholarship which he has brought to bear upon his work as Curator is far greater than that of his predecessors, his publications have brought credit to the State, and he has collected and examined an unusually large number of inscriptions for a single year but the emoluments now given to him are not, even a third of what his predecessors enjoyed. Such a reduction, must really take away all enthusiasm, and earnestness from the officer.

In consideration of the quality of the work turned out by Dr. Shama Sastri, in view of the circumstance that he is already over 53 years and may have to retire in about two years or more, and above all in view of the fact that he is in no way inferior to the Professors of the University in point of ability or work done, the Vice-Chancellor most strongly recommends that the learned Doctor be promoted to the grade Rs.400/- rising to Rs.700/- and started on Rs.550/-.

By sanctioning this proposal, Government will not only have rewarded the meritorious work of a most deserving servant, but also have done justice to a most scholarly, hard-working and capable servant, who has a grievance which is undoubtedly real and legitimate.

I am to request that you will be so good as to obtain kind sanction of Government to the above recommendation.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Registrar.
